KRAMER RIDES FAST COLUMBIA FENCERS

Veteran Sprint Cyclist Beats Arthur Spencer Two Heats. Out of Three.

All doubts about the popularity of in door cycle racing in New York were banished last night when a set of sprints catalogued as championships were held in Madison Square Garden. As at the preliminaries of the six day event last preliminaries of the six day event last during the week. All the contestant's ar entered in the six day event and all of them looked in the pink of condition and de as well as they ever did before. The first event of the night was handicap at two-thirds of a mile for amateurs. It went to William H. Beck of the Bay View Wheelmen, who was in ot of a handicap of fifteen yards. Volki of Newark was second, and Fred Hill, the veteran Boston rider, defeated more than a score of professionals in a one mile handicap. He started from the twenty-five yard mark and passed the judges nearly ten lengths ahead of Fred Weber of Newark, who was second. Jake Magin of Irvington, N. J., was third, and Charles Deruyter fourth. The time of this race was

Herman Browser was the scratch man in the 1,000 yard run for postal clerks, but he did not get first prize. And thereby hangs a tale which will be investigated by the registration commit-tee of the A. A. U. at its next meeting.

The story will be told by officers of the Sixty-ninth and Forty-seventh regiments. It concerns both Browser and Max Silver of the Mohawk A. C., who acted as one of the inspectors on the turns during the running of the race. On a report filed by Silver with Herman Chertubessing, the referee, in which Silver accused Browser of cutting the corners, the post office runner was disqualified. The decision was protested. The reasons for the protest will be made known when Browser and Silver appear before the registration committee, The summaries:
